

Outstanding Checks & Deposits

To complete the year end books, we need a list of all checks and deposits in the previous year that have not cleared the most current bank statement. This does not mean you don't have to send us your January statement. We still need those statements ASAP to catch any surprises that might happen. Please send this list prior to January 15th.

