The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) extends to self-employed individuals a potential refundable income tax credit. To qualify you must have been a self-employed individual in 2020 and you must have had time that you were UNABLE to work (including working remotely) due to a COVID-related issue between April 1st, 2020 and December 31st, 2020. You also cannot claim the credit if you were an employee of another employer at the same time.

You cannot use the same days to qualify in more than one category.

Credit for Sick Leave for Certain Self-Employed Individuals (Max 10 days)

To be eligible for the first credit, at least one of the following must have been true:

- 1. You were (or you were caring for an individual who was) under a Federal, State, or local quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19
- 2. You were (or you were caring for an individual who was) advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19
- 3. You (or you were caring for an individual who) experienced symptoms of COVID-19 and sought a medical diagnosis
- 4. You were caring for a son or daughter because the school or place of care for that child was closed or the childcare provider for that child was unavailable due to COVID-19 precautions.

	days because I met the requ and	uirements based on #	The days I qualified were days because I was caring for qualified were between		-
Credit for Family Leave for C	ertain Self-Employed Individuals (Ma	x 50 days )
To be eligible for the second whose school or day care wa	credit, you must have been unable to s closed to do COVID.	work because you provid	ed care to a son or daughter days because I was caring fo and	or my son or daughter. T	he days I qualified were
Certification of Sick Le	ave and Family Leave certify that I am eligible for	the Credits for Certain Self-Employed	Individuals based on the a	above dates.
Name	Signature	Dat	e